

Building Industry Network

Preservation New Jersey's Building Industry Network is expanding and developing the network of building industry professionals working to preserve New Jersey's historic resources. Professionals involved in the preservation or development of older properties, BIN members meet regularly to plan and participate in educational and networking programs and tours, discussing topics relevant to working with historic buildings and sites. Members assist Preservation New Jersey in advocating for public policies that support and encourage historic preservation activity and the industry.

Founded in 1978, Preservation New Jersey is protecting and preserving the someplace we all want to remember as home.

BIN members are featured in the Resources guide on the Preservation NJ & BIN website, www.pnjBuildingnet.org

Preservation New Jersey received an operating grant in 2006 from the New Jersey Historical Commission, a division of Cultural Affairs in the Department of State.

Architectural Sheet Metal: Ornamental Copper Restoration & Replication

NJ Transit Ferry Terminal Hoboken, New Jersey

A hands-on seminar in the copper fabrication workshop of Schtiller & Plevy, on-site at the 1907 Hoboken Ferry Terminal, currently under restoration by New Jersey Transit. Program and demonstrations will include review of the SMACNA's Architectural Sheet Metal 6th Edition Manual, as well as discussion of custom fabrication and restoration of ornamental copper cornices and cladding, roof drainage, flashings, louvers, wall penetrations and underlayments.

The workshop, including morning coffee and box lunch, will be held at the landmark Erie - Lackawanna Ferry Terminal on the Hoboken waterfront. Thanks to our hosts Schtiller & Plevy and NJ Transit.
